

A Statement for Immediate Issuance by the Center for Human Rights and Democratic Participation "SHAMS" Condemning the Bombing of the Danish Embassy in Islamabad

The Center for Human Rights and Democratic Participation "SHAMS", including the director, employees, volunteers and friends of the center received the terrorist attack that targeted the Danish embassy in the capital of Pakistan , Islamabad, Monday morning in severe surprising , censure and condemnation.

SHAMS center stresses that this unacceptable, strongly condemned terrorist attack affects the strong and consistent relations of Arabs and Muslims with the Kingdom of Denmark that has always been extending help and assistance for many of the developing countries in the Arab and Islamic worlds, in addition to its pivotal and essential role in supporting the just causes and in the forefront the Palestinian cause.

SHAMS center also confirms that the kingdom of Denmark that hosts and embraces tens of thousands of Arabs and Muslims on its territories who enjoy the freedom of expression and live in dignity on a large scale, has had good relations with the Arab and Islamic worlds, and that these relations are so strong to the extent that the terrorists can not, in any way, strike or harm these relations by their unacceptable and strongly denounced terrorist acts.

SHAMS center stresses that these terrorist acts will not affect the relations of mutual respect between the kingdom of Denmark and the Arab and Islamic worlds, confirming at the same time that any problem, if arises, can not be solved by these criminal acts but by using the dialogue that definitely leads to positive results for all parties without affecting the personal feelings and emotions of the others.

SHAMS center, reemphasizing its strong condemnation and conviction against this terrorist bombing that happened against the Danish embassy in Islamabad, and also emphasizes its standing by our friends, the Danish people, who are welcomed in all Arab and Islamic countries, in order to strengthen the depth of relations between the two peoples, and to besiege these terrorist groups and their closed minds and narrow thoughts. The kingdom of Denmark, that reserves and respects human rights, under no circumstances deserve to be harmed by the terrorists in its institutions and organizations throughout the world.

Finally, SHAMS center decisively rejects using of instead of using the dialogue and stresses again the importance of the direct and the open hearted dialogue to solve any problem without resorting to the any shape and kind of violence, and confirms that the best way to react against the insult of the Prophet Mohamed, peace be upon him, is through working hard to make others to be acquainted with tolerance of Islam and the high morals of the Prophet Mohamed.
