Violation Pretexts

As for the arguments used by "Israel", the occupying power, in its attempt to legitimize the crime - in January, the facilities that were demolished by the occupying forces under the pretext of building without a permit in Area C were (60) out of (64), and (3) installations under the pretext of establishing settlement projects in their place, seizing the land and confiscating it for the public benefit, and one facility on the pretext of the existence of a road network for the occupation in the area.

As for the notifications, 20 out of 28 establishments were notified, under the pretext of non-licensing and that they are located in areas (c). And (5) notifications that were a collective punishment within the occupation policy that it follows towards the homes of the perpetrators of operations against it and the homes of their families. The Israeli occupation authorities decided to demolish the home of the Palestinian martyr Fadi Abu Shkhydam in the Shuafat camp in the city of Jerusalem, who was martyred during the execution of a shooting attack that led to the death of An Israeli settler and seriously wounded three others, and the occupation army notified the family of the prisoner Mahmoud Jaradat from the town of Al-Silah Al-Harithiya, west of Jenin, on 6/1/2022, to demolish his house. near the settlement of Homesh, and returned to notify him of the demolition of the house again a week later with a similar order, and notified the demolition of the home of the family of the two prisoners, Ghaith and Omar Ahmed Yassin Jaradat, in the town of Al-Silat Al-Harithiya, west of Jenin. The occupation authorities have notified the demolition of the two schools of Kisan and "Tahadi 5" schools in the Jubbet Ad-Dib area, east of Bethlehem governorate, because they are illegal. The "Tahadi 5" school was demolished five times before it was reconstructed, while the Kisan School opened this academic year, and it was previously notified of a halt to construction, and the students there are subjected to harassment by settlers.

Meanwhile, the occupation forces notified the demolition of the dome of the Rahman Mosque in Beit Safafa in Jerusalem after it was restored, on the pretext that building a golden dome over the mosque in Beit Safafa similar to the Dome of the Rock is an attempt by the Palestinians to show the town as part of a sacred complex in Jerusalem so that the Israelis are also prohibited from entering the town. And the two facilities that were seized and confiscated under the pretext of non-licensing.

Self-Demolition

Focusing on self-demolition, which represents a kind of complex and centralized oppression, so that Palestinian citizens of Jerusalem are forced to demolish their homes and facilities with their own hands, under the threat of imposing heavy fines on them and charging them with the cost of demolition doubled if they do not. They do this, which constitutes a striking identification with the tools of the racist Israeli system, including courts, local bodies, army, and police forces, and constitutes a crime whose victims are forced to participate in its execution against themselves.

During the month of January, the number of facilities that the occupation authorities forced their owners to self-demolish reached (16) out of (64) facilities, including (10) homes, (5) shops, and (1) residential room, all in the Jerusalem governorate.
